& COASTAL SCIENCES (IMCS)

BELOW ARE SOME OPTIONS ON TRAVEL TO NEW BRUNSWICK.

- TRAIN: If local, you can take the NJ Transit trains (northeast Corridor Line) and stop in downtown New Brunswick. If you are coming from Newark Airport, you can take the New Jersey Transit train from Newark Airport to New Brunswick for $12.00 (an adult one-way ticket) and then can catch a cab to Cook Campus where the Institute of Marine & Coastal Sciences is located. A cab will cost maybe $10 and is about a 5 minute ride.
- If you are taking Amtrak, it does not stop in New Brunswick regularly - there is a station but it has very few stops if any during the day. You need to go to the Metro Park Train Station and then take a 15 minute cab ride to Rutgers or get on a NJ Transit train which takes you to downtown New Brunswick which will cost around $2.00.
- If you are flying into Newark Liberty (the closest airport) it is about a 30 - 40 minute drive depending on traffic. The easiest and most cost effective route is to take the NJ Transit which is connected to the airport and it stops in downtown New Brunswick. Otherwise you can take a taxi which may be around $50. If you rented a car at Newark Airport, see the driving directions on the next page. There is a toll on the Turnpike - you will take a ticket when you enter the Turnpike and then will pay a $0.00 toll when exiting at Exit 9.
